

Plain Version

34th Spring 802 TR -

Our setting up camp will prevent access to the Gullet for a time, based off estimates from previous years we can expect 4-6 expeditions to try and get through

Expect to receive:

- Murdina of House Crashing Rain, here to offer us an employment opportunity for Autumn.
- Assumpta Moreno Morales, Cinnire of the Order of Necromancers, here to offer us an employment opportunity for Autumn.
- Seoras, Deis, and Lothar - we have been retained to act as guards during a high family succession ceremony between two Gallóglaigh in the swamp, should be a good mission for new Galloglaigh. (16-20 Gallóglaigh needed, paying 450 pingin)
- The siblings Éana and Callum, we have been hired by the Rider to Judge a dispute between them (Judgement, 3 gallóglaigh needed, paying 45 pingin)

35th Spring 802 TR -

Based off estimates of prior years, the Pilots Guild anticipates between 12 and 18 expeditions will try and get through the Gullet over the course of the day.

Morning:

Expect to receive:

- Tomás Ua Foley, has hired us to protect Greater Uasa Water Rats from invasive predators. (500 pingin, approx 15 gallóglaigh needed)
- Fionn Stillwater, Cinnire of the Order of Necromancers who has hired us to investigate 3 sightings of a new kind of undead in the area. Not recommended for first time commanders. (500 pingin, approx 15 gallóglaigh needed)

We have been retained by Rider Lachtna to go deal with some bandits that have been plaguing a road, this should be a straightforward enough mission for new band members and commanders. (approx 12-16 gallóglaigh needed, paying 300 pingin)

Afternoon:

Expect to receive:

- Brigín O'Doimhin who has hired us to escort them on a potentially dangerous archeological expedition (12-15 galloglaigh needed, paying 240 pingin)

Evening:

Expect to receive

- Claude Wolfe, who has hired us to salvage the wreck of one of their ships (250 pingin as well as 12 Armour Salves if they can be recovered, needs 20 gallóglaiigh)
- Fachtna, Diarmaid, and the witnesses Cian and Clodagh. We've been hired by the Rider to judge a dispute between the cousins Fachtna and Diarmaid (Judgement, 3 galloglaigh needed, paying 45 pingin)

36th Spring 802 TR

Based off estimates of previous years, the Pilots Guild advises we can expect between 4 and 6 expeditions to try and get through the Gullet before we begin packing up.

Expect to Receive:

- The Réig and several of His reckoners, seeking clarifications on the reports we have submitted to them, and to collect our taxes.

Rider Lachtna wants 8-10 of us to go into the swamp to find the person/creature that has been killing people and leaving statues behind. (situation uncertain, likely to be dangerous, not recommended for new band members) (10 galloglaigh needed paying 300 pingin)
